Descendants of Joseph William Jackson

Generation No. 1

1. JOSEPH WILLIAM[1] JACKSON died 1904 in Grand Caymen, BWI. He married JANE ALLOTIE HYDE (HIDE).

Notes for JOSEPH WILLIAM JACKSON:
Hirst: "In the year 1773, when the original of the Jackson family arrived on the island he 'located' himself at Newlands and reported . . . that he found the land had been previously cultivated and a great quantity of wild goats existed in the district." A Joseph William Jackson wit. the will of John Jennett on 19 Jan. 1815.
Hirst: Genealogy of Jackson family: John Shearer Jackson came to Cayman Is. from Chatham Eng. ca 1770 but appears his family was from Whitehaven, Co. Cumberland. In 1774 he married Elizabeth Bodden who was probably a dau. of gov. William Bodden but that is not proven. Most of his family settled at Newlands but he located at Batabano, West Bay where he lived & died & some desc. were still there. Family not political - were farmers and sailors. James Shearer Jackson had a sheep ranch at Newlands but children did not continue operation. Ch. of John Shearer & Elizabeth (Bodden) Jackson: Joseph William - 3 ch; Jane Elizabeth m. a Bodden; John Tharp - 4 ch; Judith Frances m. Samuel Parsons; James Shearer m. Mary Ann Watler - 10 ch. & Jescentha m. Wm. Eden McCoy. Most present day Jackson are des. of James Shearer - he had 5 sons and 5 daus. His sons were George E. b. 1834 d. 1836; Thomas T. H; James Shearer Jr; Robert Montgomery; and Richard P. John Tharp Jackson had a dau. Elizabeth S. who married in 1846 to John Chisholm (b. 1823 d. 17 June 1899 bur. Forest Glen.) Elizabeth d. in 1876 leaving 4 sons & 5 daus.

Children of JOSEPH JACKSON and JANE (HIDE) are:

How Do I Know!

For Alvey

How do I know my youth is all spent?
Because, my get up and go, has got up and went.
But in spite of it all, I am able to grin,
When I think where my get up and go has been.

Old age is golden, so I have heard it said,
But sometimes I wonder as I get into bed;
my ears in a drawer, my teeth in a cup,
my eyes on the table until I wake up.

Ere sleep dims my eyes, I say to myself,
"Is there anything else I should lay on the shelf"
And I am happy to say, as I close my door,
my friend are the same in the days of yore.

When I was young my slippers were red,
I could kick up my heels right over my head;
When I grew older my slippers were blue,
But I still could dance the whole night thru.

Now I am older, my slippers are black,
I walk to the corner and puff my way back;
The reason I know my youth is spent,
my get up, and go, has got up and went.

But, I really don't mind, when I think with a grin
Of all the grand places, my get up has been.
Since I have retired from life's competition,
I busy myself with complete repetition.

I get up each morning, dust off my wits,
Pick up the paper and read the obits;
If my name is missing, I know I'm not dead,
So I eat a good breakfast, and go back to bed.

4) Aaron and Lina Rivers sitting at left and right edges, respectively. Lady with Geraldine, we are not sure. No one has been able to identify her so far...

I did find out from Phil that dad left the Isle of Pines in his late teens; that must explain why I know nothing of more recent history from that part of our lives.

Phil has the day off today so we all went to IHOP for lunch. It was great. Now, I'm going to get the "Cuba Room" (our family TV room) ready for tomorrow's delivery. I want to repaint the baseboards which I painted a couple of years ago; all other trimmings in the house are wood, but I just wanted to add a white touch ("pizazz") to that particular room.

When we went for our daily walk with the dogs this morning (to the Wetland preserved area/trail), a crane was out with her young ones. It was so pretty, unfortunately, I did not have my camera with me. The ducklings were also out swimming, and the monarchs came really close. Beautiful nature setting!

THE INVOCATION

THE PRAYER FOR CONSOLATION OF THE BEREAVED

THE RESPONSIVE VERSICLES

P: Our help is in The Name of The Lord,

C: who made heaven and earth.

P: As a father pities his children, so The Lord pities those that fear Him:

C: because He knows our frame; He remembers that we are but dust.

P: The Lord gave and The Lord has taken away; blessed be the Name of the Lord.

C: I trust to see The Lord in the land of the living.

P: Blessed be God, The Father of our Lord Jesus Christ:

C: The Father of mercies and The God of all comfort, who comforts us in our tribulations.

THE 23rd PSALM

=together=

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside quiet waters.
He restores my soul;
He guides me in the paths of righteousness
for His Name's sake.
Even though I walk through the shadow of death,
I fear no evil, for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
Thou has anointed my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy will follow me
all the days of my life,
And I will dwell in the house of The Lord forever.

P: Glory be to The Father, and to The Son,
and to The Holy Ghost:

C: as it was in the beginning, and shall be forever. Amen.

THE READINGS AND THE HOMILY

THE BIDDING DISMISSAL

=Nunc Dimitis: together=

Lord, let your servant depart in peace now,
according to your Word;
Because my eyes have seen your salvation,
which You prepared in presence of all the people;
A light to lighten the Gentiles,
and the glory of your people, Israel.
Glory be to The Father, and to The Son,
and to The Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be; world without end.
AMEN.

THE PRAYERS

and

THE LORD's PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven:
Hallowed be Thy Name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done in earth as it is in Heaven;
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our tresspasses as we forgive
those who tresspass against us;
And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from evil;
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory;
forever and ever. AMEN.

Isa. 45, 15: "Verily Thou art a God that hidest Thyself, O God of Israel, the Savior."

When I Come Home to Heaven

When I come home to Heaven
How joyful it will be!
For on that day at last
My risen Lord I'll see.

No greater happiness than
To see Him face to face,
To see the love in His eyes
And feel His warm embrace.

I've done nothing to deserve
That perfect home above.
It was given freely through
The grace of Jesus' love.

Then why should earthly cares
Weigh down upon me so?
They'll be a distant memory
When home at last I go.

Life in Cuba After "Las Torres Gemelas"*

* "Las Torres Gemelas" (pronounced 'hemelas') is the name given by the Cubans to the September 11, 2001 terrorists attack on the USA. It means "The Twin Towers."

Dear Friends,

Upon arrival in La Habana on Friday, May 17, I could immediately see changes. The colors in the airport workers' uniforms were different, more uniform, and more professional in appearance. While driving through the city from the airport to the hotel, I noticed the houses had lights on. We learned from the driver that they don't have nearly as many power outages as they did in the past. The light, however, are very dim, low-cost, high-efficiency ultra-violet fluorescent lights. More building maintenance upkeep was also evident along the highway … houses being repaired and painted.

Also noticed "Dollar Shopping" stores everywhere. These stores are for everyone, however, they only accept US dollars in exchange for the goods. The dollar is not easily accessible to everyone as Cubans get paid with pesos (at this time US $1 = 26 pesos). An average salary for a Cuban worker is approximately 14 pesos a month. Go figure!

There are three currencies in Cuba:
The domestic currency is the "peso": only good in Cuba.
The convertible currency: only good in Cuba.
The US dollar.

People with no access to the US dollar, have nothing other than what they can obtain with the ration books. Very limited quantities and quality, at best. Bakeries, taxi cabs and other "luxuries" only accept US dollars for their goods and/or services.

Food is more flavorful and plentiful than it was two years ago … that is, of course, if one has dollars. Housing and moving, however, continue to be challenge as one cannot buy or sell. One can only "permutar" which means "trade or exchange" with someone else who has a similar desire and arrangement (two bedrooms, one bath, etc.).

Cuban ingenuity and better water supply have improved a previous deplorable situation. At the time of our visit, however, there was still a shortage of soap. A bar of soap similar to our LAVA brand is used for washing clothes, dishes, and for bathing.

Better and higher quality clothing are now available, at higher prices. Transportation has somewhat improved, too. Mercedes Benz buses are running throughout the city and old cars (from the 1950s) are a work-in-progress. Getting gas for the cars is a challenge and a very expensive one at that. One has to get the gas on foot, without the car. We rode in one car where the gas had to be fueled in every 20 minutes or so. We used the break to enjoy the beautiful and natural scenery around us, with abundant mountains and vegetation.

The most encouraging experience was our spiritual sharing with the family. The Word of Life is alive amongst them. It was very uplifting to see their eagerness to learn about Christs love for us and to Gather the flock in a small country house where 28 souls worshipped together. 15 ages. baptised on Pentecost Sunday Praise the Lord

At other homes, we got to sing and do small craft projects with the children, who also invited their neighborhood friends to join in. We gave them each either a cross pin or a Jesus pendant. They all loved assembling the Pentecost projects (in Spanish) that a ladies' group gave us for sharing. Everyone happily received the spiritual nourishment that required no dollars to get!

We had many lovely experiences that we will cherish for a long time to come and will be glad to share with you individually.

Like everywhere else in the world, Cuba has suffered the aftermath effects of the September 11the events. Jobs, tourism, morale, etc., are down. However, our Cuban brethren can continue to do with little or limited food, shelter, material goods, transportation, etc., as long as they have the Good Shepherd watching after them. Please continue to pray that in the midst of all that the Cuban people lack, that they always have Christ in their hearts and lives. We pray also that they will soon experience a better way of life.

Our special thanks to all who gave us eyeglasses, toiletries, religious materials, moral support, and assistance in various loving ways, allowing us to share that week together with our loved ones in Cuba. They appreciated everything as much as we.

And our special prayers of thanksgiving to God for allowing us the freedom and life we enjoy in the USA as well as for watching over us during our trip to and from Cuba in May 2002.

With Christian love,

Mori & Albert Garcia

Attached are pictures of our cousin Harriet's goodbye scenes today at Rose Hills Memorial Park (Whittier) or should we rather say au revoire? Too bad we couldn't also have captured from the service the moving testimonials of her life and her loving marriage to Stu, whose off-the-cuff remarks were among the most touching.
The heritage Harriet exemplified, of love, devotion, hospitality, service, faithfulness and laughter was doubtless born out of the faithful witness provided by her own loving mother, grand-mother, etc. but surely also of her own fierce personal faith.
Some of the people there today were unaware that Harriet and Stu met during WW II while both were serving their country in the U.S. Navy. As 'taps' was played graveside, the honor guard which presented the flag to Stu, enabled them to grasp that further honorable dimension of Harriet's long (88) life.
The luncheon following the more formal proceedings was an opportunity to engage with Dr. Partridge, who provided the younger people at the service with such an eloquent Biblical perspective on death. (He expressed great interest in my 35 (or so) visits to the Holy Land - a place he'd never visited despite having once been a professor of Biblical Hebrew)
Au revoire Harriet. We won't forget you.
Bill
PS: To my sister Milli: It was a delight to again greet our cousin Jerry Yates & his wife Helene. Our brother Ted & I first met Jerry (Bertha's son) in our 1951 trip to Isla de Pinos. Ted, do you remember we gifted Jerry & Lucille's son Charley with small trifles --- maybe jacknives?
Milli: You requested Stu Rough's present address: 24441 Calle Sonora, #105, Laguna Woods CA 92639 - (or possibly 92637?)
(PSS Unfortunately the time stamp on the photographs is unchanged from a few weeks ago when we were in Russia)

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Geraldine A Ferrera

July 08, 1919
May 24, 2004

God saw she was getting tired,
And a cure was not to be;
So He put His arms around her,
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes,
We watched her suffer,
And saw her fade away.

Although we loved her dearly,
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest;
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the Best!

Rev. Alvey A. Yates Jr.

Went home to be with The Lord on September 17th, 2021, at age 76.
He passed peacefully in his sleep.

He was born in the Isle of Pines, Cuba, to Alvey Sr. and Amparo and is survived by his older brother Joseph and younger sister Mori who is married to Rev. Dr. Albert Garcia.

He leaves behind his beloved family:
Jackie, Alvey III, Darlene, Allison, Jennifer, Kathy, Andrea, Christy, & Susana.

Alvey emmigrated to the United States and lived in Miami, FL where he finished High School before enlisting in the U.S. Marines. He proudly served for four years which included deployment to Vietnam and was awarded the Purple Heart. He was honorably discharged at the rank of Sergeant and returned home to Miami where he began his life as husband and father.

Alvey worked in construction, sales, and mechanics before he was called into the ministry. After seminary, he was ordained and installed as missionary-at-large and began the Spanish congregation of San Pablo Apóstol in Miami. Alvey energetically and enthusiastically served a long and notable multi-faceted pastoral career at churches in Tampa, FL, El Paso, Tx, and post-retirement Puerto Rico, and Tifton, GA, were he settled, ministered and had many friends.

Alvey was gifted as a preacher and teacher and he loved pastoral work. He loved worship and music. He loved his heritage and he loved his country. He loved to laugh, good food, debating, and dogs. He had a lively personality and warm charm. He always loved his family and he always loved his Savior.

Alvey is with Jesus now and Alvey will be missed.

Harry Eugene Bishton died May 1, 2011 at Lutheran Hospital at 90 years of age. Born on May 21, 1920, he is survived by his beloved wife Milli, four children Mark, Daniel, David, and Emily, five grandchildren, and 3 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his sister Laverne. His passing was unexpected, but Harry's example was to move forward and dwell on the grace of God rather than the misfortune that life (and death) may bring.

Harry was born to hard working immigrant parents, Harry and Emily (Fleischer) Bishton in Pocatello, Idaho. He grew up in the Blue Island neighborhood of south Chicago, where he attended Fenger High School. Always industrious, he began earning a living as a paperboy at age 10.

He was drafted into the Army in 1941 where his natural affinity for work, orderliness, and spit-and-polish won him an appointment to officer's school. He served in the U.S. Army Signal Corps in the South Pacific where he worked with radar and reached the rank of captain as the Second World War ended. We learned later he helped track the Enola Gay on her mission to Hiroshima in 1944.

He met his queen, Milli, after the war, when he attended engineering

CLARK

MARGARET ELLA THOMAS, 70, a resident of Homestead since 1961, passed away Tuesday, October 29, 1991 following a lengthy illness. Born in Weisberg, PA, she was a graduate of Loyola and obtained her nursing training at West Penn Hospital, where she received her R.N. She was a sorority member of Delta Theta Chi and a member of the Eastern Star. As a supervisor for the Dade County Dept. of Public Health she worked until retirement. She is preceded in death by her parents, John Alfred Thomas and Ella May Johnston Thomas. Survivors include a brother, Auerbach he took intense pride in both distinctions.

He rose to the job of auditor general of the Navy, overseeing the service branch's accounts throughout the world. At the time of his scheduled retirement at age 62, his superiors wanted him to stay. Congress passed a bill allowing him to remain on the job for two more years.

While he was commanding officer of the Navy's Finance Center in Cleveland, Auerbach received a letter of commendation from

Upon his retirement in 1969, Auerbach received the Navy's Distinguished Service Medal, a Naval Commendation Medal, among other awards. And he moved to Lighthouse Point.

In South Florida, he worked for two years with the Wackenhut Co. before taking leave to care for his ailing wife, Doris, who died of liver disease in 1975.

"He had a very positive influence on our lives and has left [us with] quite a legacy," said Donn Rubino, Auerbach's stepson, of Meredith Auerbach of Seattle; sister-in-law Muriel A. Auerbach of Bainbridge Island, Wash., and nephew Eugene Auerbach of San Diego.

Visitation will be from 6 to 8 tonight at Forest Lawn Funeral Home, Pompano Beach. Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to the Bascom Palmer Eye Institute, University of Miami School of Medicine or the Livingston Chair of Surgical Oncology.

HYMN/HIMNO
WHAT A FRIEND WE HAVE IN JESUS/OH QUE AMIGO NOS ES CRISTO
What a friend we have in Jesus,
all our sins and griefs to bear!
What a priviledge to carry everything to God in prayer!
Oh, what peace we often forfeit;
oh, what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry ev'rything to God in prayer!

Oh, què amigo nos es Cristo. El llevó nuestro dolor,
Y nos manda que llevemos todo a Dios en oración.
¿Vive el hombre desprovisto de paz, gozo y santo amor?
Esto es porque no llevamos todo a Dios en oración.

Have we trials and temptations? Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged.
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful,
who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness.
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

¿Vives débil y cargado de cuidados y temor?
A Jesús, refugio eterno, dile todo en oración.
¿Te desprecian tus amigos? Dile a Cristo en oración.
En sus brazos gozo eterno hallará tu corazón.

INVOCACION/INVOCATION

HIMNO/HYMN: BEAUTIFUL SAVIOR/JESUS DIVINO
Beautiful Savior, King of creation,
Son of God and Son of Man.
Truly I'd love thee, truly I'd serve thee,
Light of my soul, my joy, my crown.

Jesús Divino, gran rey del mundo, excelso Dios hecho un ser mortal.
Yo quiero amarte, veraz servirte,
de mi alma luz, mi amor cabal.

Fair are the meadows, fair are the woodlands,
robed in flow'rs of blooming spring;
Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer,
He makes our sorr'wing spirit sing.

Lindos los prados, bellos los bosques,
cuando adornados van con primor.
Cristo es más puro: Cristo es más bello:
de corazón le doy loor.

The Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Thomas Yates death registration lists his death date as 20 Nov 1904, he was 85 and his son Robert Raven Yates was present. This puts John Thomas' birth in abt. 1819. He would have to be the brother of Joseph David Yates I, who was born 1821-1822 from his death registration. Their father is widely thought to be Thomas John Yates Senior, who is discussed at some length in Hirt's History. This would imply that there was a Thomas John Yates junior. Hirst lists the children as:

Quote:

1. Thomas, married and went to Bonacco where his descendants now live.

2. John, married and went to the island of S. Andrews where his descendants now live.

3. Joseph David married first a Burnella Graham of Jamiaca

I suspect that Thomas is Thomas John Yates junior. From my research, I believe he had at least three children in Honduras.

John is John Thomas Yates, Robert Raven's father. Obviously no one was considering how hard this was going to be on us!

Hirst has Joseph David's wife wrong. She was Bonella Baker. This is just one of many errors in the Hirst History.

To confuse matters more the is a land transfer in the Public Recorder's Records where on 13 Oct 1835 Robert James Yates recieves property from Wm Thos Bodden, Cath J Bodden & Eliz M Bodden. This puts his birth date before 1817 and likely means he was a fourth brother.

Joseph David Yates II is Benji's brother I had this and Allottie is Atkin's sister. This is new to me. Can you give me a list of all of Atkin's siblings, with dates if you have them? See bottom of this page. The Jackson's & Yates just couldn't get enough of each other, hah! They came to the Isle of Pines early but Allottie left after Joseph David got Havilene pregnant. Allottie went back to Mt. Pleasant, West Bay with one or two of their younger children. The 29 years difference in Havie's and Joseph David's ages is alarming. The only thing I know of that might be related to this is that Havie didn't get along with her stepmother. (Almost everybody had problems with her, I understand.) These things have always happened and left heartache behind them. What is redeeming is that Irene was such a loving soul to all who knew her!

There is no question in my mind that Thomas John Yates came from Jamaica. You may remember that I found a marriage record of David Yates & Elizabeth Flavell on 11 Feb 1741/42 in Clarendon Parish, Jamaica. Later in the same Parish a John Thomas Yates born in abt 1781 is baptized. Other Yates are found in St. Andrews, St. Elizabeth & Kingston Parishes in the 1700 & early 1800s.

I never thought that Ellen Jane Parsons (Old Ellean Yates) might have been married to Thomas John! She may have but it would have been after 1835, when the records show her & TJY giving their ex-slave property.

I have a note that "Elleanor Jane Yates, w/ 9 slaves, lives in Botabano; 2 were under 6 years old: Peter and Washington" TJY is listed in Mount Pleasant. Mount Pleasant & Botabano are right next to each other. Were the Jennetts (her first husband's family) from Georgetown or West Bay?

She actually was of an age closer to the younger of the boys thought to be Thomas John's sons. She was born in 1806 and Thomas John Junior may have been born in 1805 (1826-21=1805)

The last record of TJY is 05 Sep 1836 when he signed the Memorial to the Governor of Jamaica.

I'm afraid that the only place with records that might answer these questions is the Jamaican Archives in Kingston. Any volunteers???

As Mark posted there were at least 3-4 children of the original Yates in Cayman tracing dates back from documents . The spelling of Yates is found in Jamaica also in the 1700-1800's (again origin unk).

The original Yates, Thomas John Sr was in Cayman before 1808 (witnessed a slave sale) In 1823 JTY was plain Mister but by 1826 he is TJY Sr so his oldest son Thomas was now an adult (could be anything from 16-21+)

Thomas John Yates Sr was married x2 and died after 1834/5 as TJY Sr is listed as a slave owner on those records

Eleanore Ellen Jane Parsons was a widow abt 1827/8 she married TJY Sr. She is mostly likely the wife listed on the 1834/5 records. That marriage date is unk but prior to 1845 as she is listed as Yates on her father's will of 1845

Ex-Postal Supervisor Yates, 58

Services for Herbert S. Yates, 58, a retired Miami post office supervisor who was active in the credit-union movement in South Florida and held several local and statewide offices, will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at the Van Orsdel Gratigny Road Chapel.

YATES

Mr. Yates, who suffered from a respiratory ailment, died Tuesday in a Tallahassee hospital while en route to Louisiana to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Born in Isle of Pines, Cuba, Mr. Yates lived in Milwaukee for many years, where he attained a high school education. He later went to Concordia Lutheran Seminary in Wisconsin but abandoned the idea of entering the pastorate after two years of study.

HE CAME to Miami in 1935 and worked at several jobs including two years as a Miami fireman. In 1942 he joined the Post Office as a clerk and 12 years later was promoted to supervisor.

During his years as a clerk, he was active in the United Federation of Postal Clerks and served as secretary-treasurer of the Miami chapter. For many years he was editor of the organization's monthly publication, "Clerk's Mail."

Mr. Yates also served as state treasurer for the Florida Federation of Postal Clerks before becoming a supervisor.

HE RETIRED from his postal position last April because of illness

Mr. Yates was described by a colleague as one "who believed in the credit union movement, and a person always willing to help others."

Active in the Miami Postal Service Credit Union, Mr. Yates served as its president for five years and at his death was treasurer.

Until 1965, he was chairman of the stabilization board for the Florida Credit Union League, a statewide organization of credit unions. In January 1965, he was elected to the board of directors of the Peoples Credit Union in North Miami.

MR. YATES lived at 12045 NW Miami Ct. He was a member of North Shore Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Maude; a son, Herbert Jr., of Baton Rouge, La.; a daughter, Janet Clark, of Coral Gables; his father, Atkins Yates, of Goulds; two brothers; four sisters, and three grandchildren.

Burial will be in Dade Memorial Park.

Mr. Yates suffered from arthritis for more than 30 years, and the family requests that memorial contributions be made to the Arthritis Foundation.

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his names sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

From the EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

FINALLY!

"Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord!

Philippians 3: 1

On a recent vacation I had the opportunity to read through all of Paul's epistles and the word "Finally" struck me, in light of the fact that this was to be my final newsletter column under the title: "FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR."

Paul uses the term "finally" in the context of living the Christian life. You are quite familiar with Paul's urging to "Put on the whole armor of God" section in Ephesians 6:10-17. In Philippians 3, he talks about "the goal of life" that urges us "to press on."

As the Rev. James Fandrey assumes the LHF Executive Director's position, I will "press on" as Founder and Church Relations. My plan is to also write a history of LHF. This is not just a time for looking back, but following the exhortations of Paul, we need to "be strong in the Lord, put on, stand firm, take up, gird up, press on" in order to combat the ever-growing forces of darkness in our world.

St. Paul states the goal of life when he says, "I press on so that I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus. Forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." Philippians 3:12

The Lord has blessed the LHF mission these past 16 years as we sought to provide Lutheran confessional writings in many languages that are Christ centered, Bible based and Reformation driven. That goal will remain constant, and you can have the confidence that your prayers and financial support will carry the printed Word to the far corners of the world.

It is my prayer that the LHF would continue to produce those "weapons of mass instruction" that would enable readers everywhere to run the race with perseverance.

"Finally, brethren, rejoice, be made complete, be comforted, be like-minded, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you." 2 Cor. 13:11

Finally, farewell as the regular writer of this column and greetings in my future role as a special LHF ambassador.

Robert L. Rahn

Your LHF mission gifts at work:

Joyful teachers, curious children receive Bibles & catechisms

SPANISH - The Bible with Luther's Small Catechism

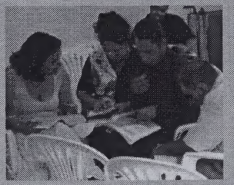
"Thank you...for this wonderful miracle!" writes Rev. Alberto Garcia, president of the Cuban Lutheran Fellowship board of directors. The Lutheran Church in Cuba and other evangelical Christians received a shipment of more then 3,400 copies of the Spanish Bible with Small Catechism, published this summer by the Lutheran Heritage Foundation.

To Rev. Garcia's dismay, the Bibles were initially confiscated by airport authorities when they arrived in Cuba. However, it was discovered that there had been a clerical error, and the Lutheran Church in Cuba was allowed to accept delivery the following day.

"Luther's Catechism will help people in Spanish-speaking countries see the Gospel in all its richness and beauty," said Rev. Dr. Douglas Rutt, who oversaw the translation project for LHF and previously served as a missionary in Guatemala. "Materials like this are expensive and hard to come by in Spanish-speaking countries. There is a thirst to read God's work and other works of theology."



Rev. Albert Garcia, above, prepares to distribute copies of the Spanish Bible with Catechism. Below, Cuban Lutherans eagerly pore over their new Bibles.

LHF published 20,000 copies of the Spanish Bible with Catechism. Several thousand have been shipped to South and Central America for distribution, and hundreds more have been requested from congregations and individuals throughout the United States.

The translation work on the catechism was carried out in Spain by a team from the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Spain: catechists Juan Carlos, García Cazorla, and Javier Sánchez Ruíz, and missionary Rev. Walter Daniel Ralli. Rev. Ralli also wrote several questions dealing with contemporary issues, such as abortion, euthanasia and Pentecostalism, which were added to the "Q and A" section of the catechism.

"Not only will our Lutheran churches have quite a few copies [of this book] for teaching, but every evangelical pastor in Cuba will receive a great gift and witness to our Lutheran heritage and witness," said Rev. Garcia. "This gift opens further doors to our work in Cuba."

THAI AND KHMER - Child's Garden of Bible Stories

Thanks to the generous support of Lutheran day school and Sunday school students throughout the United States, their Cambodian brothers and sisters in Christ recently received their very own copies of A Child's Garden of Bible Stories, translated into their Khmer language.

Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Birmingham, Mich., sponsored the Thai translation, which was also distributed this summer.

"There is no other book like this in Southeast Asia," said Rev. Ted NaThalang, LHF's coordinator for translation projects in Southeast Asia. "Even if there were, a child's book would be an unaffordable luxury for many people. Now, parents have something they can use to teach their young children about their Savior, Jesus Christ."

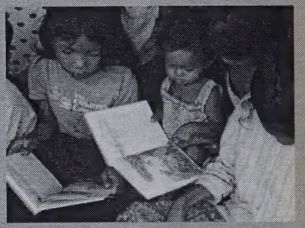
Rev. Tim Mueller of St. John Lutheran Church in Nashville, Ill., and his wife, Dawn, accompanied Rev. NaThalang to Thailand and Cambodia to introduce the book to pastors and teachers there.

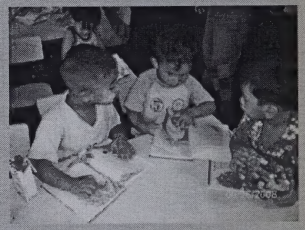
"Because the Christian faith is so new to many parts of Southeast Asia, they're not accustomed to teaching Sunday school," explained Rev. NaThalang. "An important part of introducing this book was teaching the adults how to use A Child's Garden of Bible Stories to teach Sunday school."

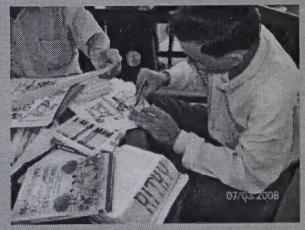
Several Bible stories were added to this edition of the story book, including the baptism of Christ and the story of Jesus' first communion with the disciples. "Here and there, the text was made more precise and some elements added that are really needed in the mission field, such as the Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, and the words of Institution - things that transition into the teaching of the catechism," said Rev. Mueller.

LHF always makes its books available free of charge to those who need them and cannot afford them. "But because this book is of such good quality, and there is nothing else like it available, we also plan to make this book available in bookstores in Cambodia and Thailand," said Rev. NaThalang. "It will be another way of reaching people who otherwise know nothing about their Savior."

Over the next two years, LHF plans to translate and publish A Child's Garden of Bible Stories into the Bahasa-Indonesia, Vietnamese, simplified Chinese and Mandarin Chinese languages. To support this project, visit the LHF website at www.LHFmissions.org.







READ MORE ON THE WEB!

Go to www.LHFmissions.org to read the Mueller's journal about their trip, and to see more photos of the children receiving their books.

20 June 2010

Señor, Padre santo, Dios todopoderoso y eterno, humildemente te suplicamos por tu siervo, a quien has llamado de este mundo: dígnate llevarlo al lugar del descanso, de la luz y de la paz. Concédele franquear victoriosamente las puertas de la muerte, para que habite con tus santos en el cielo, en la luz que prometiste a Abrahán y su linaje. Que su alma se vea libre de toda pena, y, cuando llegue el gran día de la resurrección y del premio, resucítale entre tus santos y elegidos. Olvida sus culpas y pecados, para que, junto a ti, goce de la vida inmortal en el reino eterno. Por Jesucristo nuestro Señor.

Amén.

INVOCATION

HYMN 457, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus"

PSALM 23

P: The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
C: HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES.
P: He leadeth me beside the still waters,
C: HE RESTORETH MY SOUL,
P: He leadeth me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
C: YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW OF DEATH,
P: I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me;
C: THY ROD AND THY STAFF, THEY COMFORT ME.
P: Thou preparest a table before me
C: IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES.
P: Thou anointest my head with oil;
C: MY CUP RUNNETH OVER.
P: Surely goodness & mercy will follow me all the days of my life
C: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD FOREVER. AMEN.

NAVY HYMN

Eternal Father, strong to save, whose arm doth bind the ocean wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep its own appointed limits keep,
O hear us when we cry to Thee for those in peril on the sea!

O Christ, whose voice the waters heard, & hushed their raging at Thy word,
Who walkedst on the foaming deep, and calm amidst its rage didst sleep,
O hear us when we cry to Thee for those in peril on the sea!

O Trinity of love and pow'r, our brethren shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe, protect them wheresoe'er they go.
Thus evermore shall rise to Thee glad hymns of praise from land and sea!

MESSAGE: "Facing Death with a Living Hope"

TEXT: "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In His great mercy He has given us a new birth and a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead; an inheritance which is stored up for you in heaven and which can never perish, spoil or fade." (1 Pet 1:3)
